

GERALDINE MURPHY JOINS TUDOR, PICKERING, HOLT & CO.
AS MANAGING DIRECTOR

Strengthens International Energy Advisory Practice

Houston and London, July 14, 2017 – Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. (“TPH”) today named Geraldine Murphy a Managing Director in its Investment Banking business. Based in London, Ms. Murphy will provide strategic and financial advice to clients in the energy sector. Effective immediately, Ms. Murphy will also join TPH’s Leadership Council.

Ms. Murphy has more than 25 years of energy advisory experience leading a broad range of merger and acquisition assignments, including several landmark cross-border transactions. She was most recently Global Head, Oil and Gas Corporate Advisory at Standard Chartered Bank. Prior to that, Ms. Murphy was a Founding Member and Managing Director at Harrison Lovegrove, an oil and gas advisory boutique that was later sold to Standard Chartered. Ms. Murphy began her career as a geologist.

Bobby Tudor, Chairman of TPH and Co-Head of Advisory at Perella Weinberg Partners, said, “We are excited to welcome Geraldine to the TPH and PWP team. Expanding our international presence is a key priority and Geraldine’s addition reflects our dedication to serving our clients wherever they operate and providing a perspective that is uniquely global.”

Maynard Holt, Chief Executive Officer of TPH, said, “Geraldine is a top-notch addition to our team. She knows the space, has an extensive network and has tremendous experience advising companies around the world. Combining her international expertise with our strong North American capability is a critical piece as we look to position TPH as a leading provider of strategic advice to energy companies globally.”

Ms. Murphy stated, “TPH is a world-class energy advisory franchise with a reputation for incisive energy expertise and unparalleled advice to the leading companies in the industry. I am excited to join this talented team whose commitment to clients and conducting business with integrity, perspective and humor are at the center of the organisation.”

About Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co.

Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. is a leading provider of high-quality advice and services to the energy industry. It offers financial advisory, asset management services and securities underwriting services, as well as sales and trading, underwriting and research coverage on approximately 140 issuers worldwide. TPH recently combined with Perella Weinberg Partners (<http://www.pwpartners.com>), a leading independent, client-focused financial services firm. Based in Houston, Texas, TPH also has offices in Calgary, Denver, London and New York. For more information on Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. please visit <http://www.tphco.com>.

Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. Media Contacts:

Kara Findlay/Andrew McGloin

212-287-3197/646-708-8681

Karen Ma

713-333-4841

Victoria Palmer-Moore/Karen Le Cannu

Powerscourt

+44 (0)20 7250 1446